A NOTE TO YOU:

I hope you and your students enjoy this FREE critical thinking resource from me! I love using puzzles such as these to encourage students to develop both their critical and creative thinking skills. For even more from me, follow me on my blog and/or visit my TpT or Teacher's Notebook stores at the addresses listed below. There are tons of seasonal resources for you there, including "Let's Celebrate Cinco de Mayo" and "Let's Honor Our Veterans—Veterans Day and Memorial Day Enrichment." I hope these enrichment resources make your May even more marvelous! You can also find my Bryant's Brain Train page on Facebook.
